

Our legal counsel recommended that MI-AIMH license the use of the MI-AIMH Competency Guidelines and Endorsement to state organizations and affiliates for a fee. Beginning January 1, 2010, the fee structure will include the following:

Competency Guidelines	3-year License to Use	Training/Technical Assistance	Renewal Agreement	Duration
The competencies provide standards and define the knowledge, skills and reflective supervision necessary to support work force development and to promote infant mental health. The competencies also guide the construction of infant and family services and systems reform.	$15,000 fee (total). May be used toward purchase of license to use all of the Endorsement materials if agreement is reached within the 3-year time period as noted in the original contract.	$4,000 fee (total) for 2 trainers, 2 days, plus travel expenses Additional training/consultation planned as needed/ requested with fee mutually determined by licensor and licensee	$1,000 annual renewal fee, after initial 3-year licensing period ends	For duration of copyright
Endorsement Process	3-year License to Use	Training/Technical Assistance	Renewal Agreement	Duration
The Endorsement is a process that identifies knowledge, skills and reflective supervision experiences that are essential for building capacity to promote infant mental health. It includes the competencies, a process for application and award at 4 levels, a system for review, tests and procedures for decisionmaking.	$25,000 fee (total) for use of all the Endorsement materials, including the Competency Guidelines, paperwork to administer the full endorsement, process and the endorsement exam.	$4,000 fee (total) for 2 trainers, 2 days, plus travel expenses Includes phone consultation (5 hours) to facilitate planning and implementation of the competencies and the full endorsement process. Additional fee to facilitate scoring of exams planned as needed/requested with fee mutually determined by licensor and licensee.	$1,000 annual renewal fee, after initial 3-year licensing period ends $1,000 fee for revised Endorsement exam, as needed	For duration of copyright